Notice to Agent is Notice to Principal: Notice to Principal is Notice to Agent

To the man or woman, acting as an agent of National Enterprise Systems, Inc.,

You will take notice that the attorney general of your state will soon be notified about your fraudulent complaint that I owe you $5,836.57. You should receive a letter from the attorney general within a week.

You will take further notice that I am the peaceable, free will and living man and not the legal fiction John Doe or JOHN DOE. The name John Doe or JOHN DOE and I are not one and the same. You will take further notice that the person John doe or JOHN DOE with the zip code 55425 does not reside in my home; that person resides somewhere in the federal district of the District of Columbia.

The next time you, the man or woman acting as an agent of National Enterprise Systems, Inc., send me another letter or call me anywhere about the matter in this writ, you will be liable for trespassing on my property and causing me any harms and damages. You will take further notice that I do not give you permission to sell and share my contact information to any debt collectors and third parties. You are now notified of my claims and thereby are liable for causing me any harms and damages.

Sincerely,

_____ john doe, non-negotiable autograph, all rights reserved.

Dated this _____ day of _____ in the year two thousand _____.
